(Bel Air, MD) - - Harford County Department of Community Services employees Linda Myers and Peggy Rumsey have been named the Harford County Employees of the Month for July 2013. Both work at the Edgewood Senior Activity Center for the Office on Aging, and were recognized for their efforts to improve the facility.

"Linda and Peggy have made a difference in both the appearance and the overall attitude of the Edgewood Senior Activity Center. They have spruced the building up, making it more inviting for the seniors that utilize it," said Danita Long and Joan Turbutt of the Division of Facilities & Operations in nominating their co-workers.

Director of Administration Mary F. Chance stated, "I have seen firsthand how well-received the work of Linda and Peggy has been by the citizens who utilize the Edgewood Senior Activity Center. They are two wonderful county employees, and I appreciate all that they have done and continue to do."

"Our Senior Activity Centers serve such an important role in the lives of a great number of county residents," added Elizabeth S. Hendrix, Director of the Department of Community Services. "As the population of our county ages, these centers will be utilized more and more. Therefore, it is vital that they continue to be as well run and maintained as they are now. This is why dedicated employees like Linda and Peggy are so valuable to county government and to the citizens of Harford County."
